YOUR TUTOR DR. SYLVIA DITCHBURN

A fine artist known for her vibrant tropical and desert landscapes, Sylvia works 'En Plein Air', crisscrossing Australia in search of her subjects and reflecting the ambiance of natural environments.

Sylvia's work is displayed worldwide in public and private collections and has received over 50 awards and commendations. A career spanning over 40 years has included over 55 solo Australian exhibitions and many more international group shows in Russia, China, France, Italy, New York and Budapest.

Join Sylvia in March 2024 on Norfolk Island for En Plein Air.

Partners & Friends who do not wish to participate in the painting workshop are very welcome to come along; there is plenty to do on beautiful Norfolk Island whilst painters are out in the field.

EXPLORE INSPIRATIONAL NORFOLK ISLAND

Mid-way between Australia and New Zealand and only a two hour flight away – there are so many reasons to visit Norfolk!

Renowned for its tall pines, high cliffs, green valleys, lush rainforest and coral reefs beneath sparkling turquoise waters, the Island's beauty is a constant source of artistic inspiration. Visitors will be astounded by the countless scenic opportunities.

Experience our pristine environment on rainforest walks and snorkeling on the reefs. Cafés and restaurants offer deliciously fresh and organic meals, and shopping highlights include: local art/crafts, toys, shoes, cosmetics and other tax-free items

This small Pacific island is packed full of things to see and do. The World Heritage Listed 'Kingston Historic Area' will take you into the turbulent convict eras. Learn about today's vibrant 'Norf'k' culture via tours, displays or even just a chat with a friendly local!

Other activities include: 4WD Tours, Glass-Bottom Boat Trips, Eco-Tours, Progressive Dinners to Islander Homes, Museum and Heritage Tours, Sunset Fish Fry Music Nights, Bowls, Golf, Tennis, Squash, Art Trails and Cottage Industry Tours.

A Pacific gem, guaranteed to return you home safe and satisfied.
